

SAN SILVESTRO ROOM

With the elegant triumph of its late-Baroque decorations it is the most exclusive area of the University Residential Centre.

The vast nave of the old church celebrates the perfect union between the sacred prestige of its historic home and the efficiency of the Centre.

The modern equipment allows the full enjoyment of an ancient space, where sophisticated beauty meets with technology.

ERMETE NOVELLI THEATRE

The Theater is the largest conference room of the University Residential Centre. Able to accommodate up to 150 participants simultaneously it is equipped with state-of-the-art facilities. In addition to cabling and wi-fi, the theater offers audio-visual equipment and the possibility of activating videoconferences with the room of the nearby Church of San Silvestro or its large entrance hall.

BERTINORO: THE TOWN OF HOSPITALITY

The name Bertinoro dates back to the year 1000 and according to a legend it comes from a comment by Gal-la Placidia who said that the local wines are so delicious that they should be "drank in gold" ("Berti in oro"). The town is known for its hospitality of which the column is the main symbol. In order to avoid fights between the noble families all eager to house the strangers arriving in town, it was decided to attach several rings to the column, one for each family. Thus when a stranger would reach Bertinoro he could tie the horse to one of the rings and randomly pick a family as host during his stay. Every year on the first Sunday of September this ancient ceremony is reenacted.

How to reach the center

Bertinoro is located between the cities of Forlì and Cesena, next to the town of Forlimpopoli, and close to the regional main roads: via Emilia SS9, the freeway A14, the E45, the railway line Bologna-Ancona.

By train: on the railway line Bologna-Ancona get off either at the station of Forlì or Cesena. Bertinoro is about 13km from both cities.

By plane: Guglielmo Marconi in Bologna is the closest international airport from Bertinoro. Upon request it is possible to organize private or group transfers from the nearby train stations or from Bologna.

THE UNIVERSITY RESIDENTIAL CENTER

For over twenty years the University Residential Center of Bertinoro (Ce.U.B.) has been setting very high standards in international conference and event management.

Initially created to host the summer schools organized by the University of Bologna, during its history Ce.U.B. has developed an exceptional team specialized in the organization and management of national and international training courses, workshops, private events and meetings.

THE BISHOP'S FORTRESS

The fortress was built in the X Century. Thanks to its privileged location it was one of the most dreaded defensive buildings of the area and it offered a safe shelter from the enemy's assaults.

Some of its rooms are decorated with important frescoes that date back to the XV, XVI and XVII Centuries. From the end of the 1500s until 1986 the castle was the home of the Bishops of Bertinoro. It currently houses the administrative offices of the University Residential Center, 21 guestrooms, several classrooms, a computer lab, meeting spaces, and the Interfaith Museum.

THE REVELLINO

Formerly a military outpost of the Fortress, today the Revellino hosts 4 classrooms, a secretary office, and two large scenic terraces for outdoor activities.

THE FORMER SEMINARY

The Center is equipped with a large guesthouse, located both in the former Seminary and on the higher floors of the Castle. Inside the Seminary are available common spaces, a gym, and a canteen that seats 200.

TEACHING FACILITIES

Ce.U.B.’s priority is to welcome its guests and make them feel at total ease, thus allowing them to gain the maximum benefits from their stay in Bertinoro. All meeting spaces are characterized by the simple elegance and efficiency of the furniture. In addition to hosting regular-style lectures Ce.U.B.’s conference rooms make it possible to organize seminars, workshops for small groups, lab activities, and special events.
